CASE NO. 8:11 CR180
18 U.S.C. § 152(2)
18 U.S.C. § 1519
18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C) [Forfeiture]
28 U.S.C. § 2461(c) [Forfeiture]

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

~~SEALED~~

1. On or about February 10, 2009, defendant Jon Jerald Hammill filed or caused to be filed a Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition (the "Petition") with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida (the "Court"), a proceeding under Title 11 of the United States Code. Hammill signed the Petition, which included Schedules listing his assets and liabilities and a Statement of Financial Affairs, under penalty of perjury.

2. From on or about February 28, 2008, through on or about April 1, 2010, defendant Hammill and Jon J. Hammill P.A. ("Hammill P.A."), a Florida shell corporation that Hammill owned and controlled, received approximately $1.5 million from Botfly, LLC, a Florida corporation that purported to offer investments in the foreign currency markets ("Botfly"). Those funds constituted proceeds of investments by Hammill with Botfly and compensation for clerical work that Hammill and Hammill P.A. had performed on behalf of Botfly. As described more fully below, Hammill made materially misleading omissions and false statements throughout the bankruptcy proceeding to conceal his receipt of those funds and his relationship with Botfly.

~~SEALED~~

3. In his Petition, in response to a question requiring Hammill to list all businesses in which he owned any interest, Hammill omitted his ownership of Hammill P.A. In addition, in response to a question in the Petition requiring Hammill to list the beginning and ending dates of any business in which he had been employed, Hammill falsely stated that his work for Hammill P.A. had ended in or about 2006, and did not disclose his relationship with Botfly.

4. In addition to the false statements in his Petition, Hammill lied under oath in sworn testimony. On or about March 17, 2009, within the Middle District of Florida and in the presence of the Chapter 7 Panel Trustee appointed by the Court ("Trustee"), Hammill testified under oath at a meeting of creditors. While under oath, and in response to the Trustee's questions, Hammill testified that he had disclosed everything he owned, when, in fact, he failed to disclose that he had received $111,000 from Botfly prior to the filing of his Petition.

COUNT ONE

5. The Grand Jury realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 4 of this Indictment as though fully set forth herein.

JON JERALD HAMMILL,

In violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1519.
